

Investment Objective

Our Emerging Market Debt Stars Fund invests in a concentrated portfolio of hard currency corporate, emerging market bonds.

The objective is to generate attractive total returns primarily from income yield and targets low volatility by managing duration.

We believe that an unconstrained concentrated portfolio following our principles of quality and value is the best way to deliver income, upside opportunity and downside protection.

This means that we invest in key businesses in their respective industries and geographies, with strong underlying fundamentals, able to navigate through cycles. We favour companies in structurally attractive industries with strong business models, financial strength, predictable cash flows & management teams with proven track records.

Performance since launch on 17th February 2023 is that of the Fund's A1 USD Share class. Prior to launch performance was that of J. Stern & Co.'s Emerging Market Debt USD Strategy, which the Fund follows, based on total return (with coupons reinvested) and net of 1% fees per annum, deducted quarterly in arrears. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results; the value of any investment can fall as well as rise; and returns may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations. Comparator: iShares JPM EM Corporate Bond ETF, with distributions reinvested, CEMB US, CUSIP 464286251. Source: SIX, Wize, Bloomberg.

Portfolio Comment

The fund was up 0.4% for the month and 5.5% year-to-date. US economic data pointed towards a modest softening in growth and inflation. US Treasury yields were range bound and credit spreads anchored.

There was positive underlying corporate news. Seplat (Nigeria; Energy) made progress on the purchase of ExxonMobil's shallow-water assets in Nigeria. This would be a transformative acquisition, more than doubling production and 2P reserves.

Companies continued to proactively manage their debt maturity profiles. AES Andes (Chile; Utilities) called their existing perpetual bond and we crystallised attractive total returns. The transaction was financed with a new US dollar bond which ranks senior, has a higher credit rating and coupon, and classifies as a "green" bond.

Finally, we added a new company to the fund. Bidvest is a leading B2B services and distribution company. It operates in South Africa with a growing international footprint. It has a diversified portfolio, including essential, non-cyclical assets. The company benefits from visibility on future revenues and a robust balance sheet.

The narrative around economic growth, inflation and Fed interest rate policy will continue to drive credit spreads. Political uncertainty in Developed Markets may weigh on broader risk sentiment and provide bouts of volatility. Importantly, underlying credit fundamentals are robust, default rates in check. Technicals including bond supply and investor positioning remain light, which is also supportive of the asset class.
