

Investment Objective

The World Stars Global Equity Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in a concentrated selection of shares in leading global companies with enduring competitive advantages and a long runway of growth.

We select companies based on our own fundamental research, taking a long-term horizon. We do not follow benchmarks and always seek to invest in quality and value.

Quality means companies that are global leaders, have strong competitive positions and pricing power in structurally attractive and growing markets, have management teams with strong records of value creation and have robust balance sheets.

Value means buying those companies at prices that allow for the prospect of significant capital growth over 5-10 years or more.

Portfolio Comment

Global equity markets pulled back in October, driven by uncertainty over the US elections and concerns over the second wave of the pandemic. Our World Stars Global Equity fund continued to outperform and is materially ahead of the MSCI World this year.

Many of our companies reported results in October. The overall picture was robust, with strong results in information technology and health care, and also in selected consumer goods and industrials.

Alphabet (+10%) was the strongest performer during the month driven by strong Q3 results and an increasing view that the expected solution to the anti-trust investigations of 'search unbundling' will not have a material impact on the business. With $133 billion of cash and Google's 90% share of global search, the company is in a powerful position.

Thermo Fisher's (+7%) third quarter results, with revenues up 36%, underlined its position as a leading solutions-provider against Covid-19. Its flagship testing kit is now approved in 50 countries.

Whilst it is still open as to whether Biden or Trump will be President and which party will control the Senate, the closer than expected result so far points to more moderate policies going forward as all sides will have to compromise to get things done.

We believe that our Fund is strongly positioned to benefit going forward as our companies continue to do well and as demand returns with the eventual releases of vaccines against the pandemic.
