

Investment Objective

The World Stars Global Equity Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in a concentrated selection of shares in leading global companies with enduring competitive advantages and a long runway of growth.

We select companies based on our own fundamental research, taking a long-term horizon. We do not follow benchmarks and always seek to invest in quality and value.

Quality means companies that are global leaders, have strong competitive positions and pricing power in structurally attractive and growing markets, have management teams with strong records of value creation and have robust balance sheets.

Value means buying those companies at prices that allow for the prospect of significant capital growth over 5-10 years or more.

Portfolio Comment

Our World Stars Global Equity fund continued its strong performance, led by our holdings in digital companies and supported by positive news flow from the large majority of our companies which have released their results for the fourth quarter of 2023.

As we expected based on our company analysis, the US economy has continued to be robust. Q4 GDP growth was 3.3%, driven by robust consumer spending. Core PCE inflation fell to 2.9% and the US Fed pointed to rate cuts later in 2024. This contributed to the Conference Board's consumer confidence index rising to 114.8, the highest since December 2021.

Nvidia (+24%) rose sharply in response to demand for its GPU chips and comprehensive AI ecosystem. Meta (+10%), announced that it would spend c.US$10bn on Nvidia's H100 graphics cards by the end of 2024, which has pushed consensus earnings estimates for Nvidia higher again. Similarly, ASML (+17%) reported new bookings of US$9.2bn for its semiconductor equipment in its Q4 results, compared to the US$3.6bn average for Q1-Q3 2023, with an increased mix of high-margin EUV technology.

RTX (+8%) reported 10% revenue growth in Q4 and provided reassurance on the Pratt & Whitney GTF engine recall. RTX's order backlog rose again to US$196bn.

LVMH (+5%) achieved 10% organic revenue growth in Q4, with higher margins, underlining the power of its competitive position in a more challenging market for luxury goods.
